Highlights from the PED Accessibility and Accommodations Manual

<https://webnew.ped.state.nm.us/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/assessment-accommodations-and-accessibility-manual.pdf>

Accessibility Supports

Universal Tools Available to All Students

- CBT (built in) or PBT
- Examples:
  - blank paper
  - answer eliminator
  - highlighter
  - calculator (on test sections that allow)
  - zoom or magnifier

Accessibility Features Available to Designated Students

- Designated by team such as SAT or by agreement among teacher, student, and parent
- Only assign if used in classroom instruction
- On CBT, must be enabled in platform
- Examples:
  - color contrast
  - directions read aloud, clarified, or repeated
  - headphones as noise buffer
  - human reader or text-to-speech on a math or science (accommodation on ELA)

Accommodations

Available Only to Students with IEP or 504 Plan

- Only assign if used in classroom instruction
- Examples:
  - Human reader or text-to-speech on ELA assessment
  - Calculator on non-calculator section
  - Extended time (on timed test)
  - Braille

Accommodations vs Modifications

- Modifications: Changes in student response or test administration that change the construct of the test
  - Change what the test is intended to measure
  - Give students an unfair advantage
  - Lead to invalid test result
- Examples:
  - Allowing use of a dictionary
  - Paraphrasing a test question for a student

Non-standard & Emergency Accommodations

- Non-standard accommodations
  - E.g., Cell phone for blood glucose monitoring, homebound student test at home
  - Submit form via PED Test Coordinator Portal at least 2 weeks before test
- Emergency accommodations
  - E.g., student breaks arm and can't write or use a mouse
  - 504 Plan if time
  - Non-standard accommodation form if not

Accommodations Irregularities

- Administering an assessment with an accommodation that is not in a student's legal plan is an irregularity.
- Administering an assessment without an accommodation that is in a student's plan is an irregularity.
- ✓ Avoid irregularities by checking and double checking which accommodations are assigned to students

Who takes DLM?: Guiding Questions for IEP Teams

Does the student's past and present performance in multiple settings (home, school, community) indicate that a significant cognitive disability is present?

Does the student need intensive, pervasive, or extensive levels of support in school, home, and community settings?

Do the student's current cognitive and adaptive skills and performance levels require direct instruction to accomplish the acquisition, maintenance, and generalization of skills in multiple settings (home, school, and community)?

Information from questions 1-3 drives placement decisions:

Instruction

- Instruction in the general education academic standards is not appropriate, even with intensive accommodations and supports
- Instruction in alternate academic standards is appropriate

Assessment

- Participation in the general assessment is not appropriate, even with intensive accommodations and supports
- The alternate assessment is appropriate for the child
