Internet Connectivity Issues at Home

If internet connectivity goes in and out during testing you will be able to continue to take your test, your responses will be saved in your browser's cache.

If there is no internet connectivity when you turn in your test you will see a message providing instructions. The message will instruct you to relaunch the web browser on your testing device and navigate to the student test interface (<https://newmexico.cognia.org/student/>) after internet connectivity has been restored. This will force any test data saved on the browser to be sent for scoring.

Additional information on what to do in this situation, as well as information on other error messages you may see are outlined in the Browser Testing User Guide.

NOTE: Do not clear browsing data/cache when you are trying to establish internet connection during testing or submitting a test offline.
