

Tips for Writing

As you write, think about what makes your writing the best it can be.

My Best Writing

Stays on topic and pays attention to all parts of the writing task
Includes details and examples to support ideas
Is clearly organized
Makes word choices that are well suited to the task
Uses simple, compound, and complex sentences with correct capitalization, punctuation, and spelling

Today you will be writing an opinion text. When you write an opinion, you

- tell others your opinion about a topic.
- gather and present reasons for your opinion.
- use specific facts, examples, and details to support those reasons.
