QuickStart: Student Testing Interface

A. Navigation

The screenshot displays a digital reading application interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with several elements: a 'Question' dropdown menu showing '4', a star icon for bookmarks, a 'Zoom' search icon, 'Text-to-Speech' controls with play and stop buttons, a settings gear icon, and a 'Demo 5' status indicator with a green dot. Below this bar are two tabs: 'Passage 1' (highlighted in yellow) and 'Passage 2'. A question is visible in the 'Passage 2' tab: 'In Passage 2, how long were the children given to grow their plants?'. A list of multiple-choice options is shown on the right: (A) one day, (B) one week, (C) one month, and (D) one year. The main content area shows 'Passage 1' with the title 'How Deer Got His Horns' and a numbered list of 9 paragraphs. At the bottom, there is a toolbar with icons for a keyboard, a screen, a pencil, an eraser, a calculator, a ruler, a protractor, and a notepad. Navigation buttons are labeled with numbers: 'Clear' (5), 'Pause/Exit' (6), 'Back' (7), 'Next' (7), and 'Finish' (8). A 'Demo 5' indicator is also present in the top right corner.

You will now read two passages and answer the questions that follow. Some of the questions may ask you to compare the two passages. Read Passage 1 and then click the Passage 2 tab at the top of the screen to read Passage 2.

Passage 1

How Deer Got His Horns

1 Deer did not always have horns. They were round and smooth. That was before the first race.

2 Back then, the forest animals played contests. They made their contests even more interesting by having winners.

3 When Parrot flew the farthest, she won a white stripe down her back. When Skunk came in first, he won a white stripe down his back.

4 One day, the animals wanted to have a race. They decided to hold a race. The participants were Deer and Rabbit. The animals picked Deer and Rabbit to race. Deer was fast, but Rabbit was faster.

5 Deer and Rabbit would race through the forest. The forest was thick with bushes, branches, and trees. The animals marked a start line and a finish line at the other. Then, the animals could see them.

6 The animals marked a start line and a finish line at the other. Then, the animals could see them.

7 "Those are beautiful!" exclaimed Fox.

8 Chipmunk agreed. "I would love to wear those horns." Rabbit liked the horns, too, and wanted them for himself.
